

MES Academy

It is an astonishingly simple realization: A car without fully functioning software is no longer viable in today's world. We offer comprehensive support for all stages of model-based development from Process Consulting to Quality Engineering and training classes – assisted by solutions that have been tried and tested in series production and, more importantly, on the road.

image not found or type unknown

-

Datasheet MES Academy (229.2 KiB)

Consulting

Introduction, expansion, and optimization of your software development processes, incorporating the relevant industry standards

Learn more

Training

Training events and classes for beginners, experts, and managers on best-practice development of software for the vehicle

Learn more

Webinars

MES Webinar series about tools, applications, and concepts to optimize model-based software development

Learn more

Modeling Guidelines Interest Group (MGIGroup)

image not found or type unknown

A dedicated group of experts for successful model-based software development

Learn more