News in MTest v.5.0

Mar 05, 2018–Mar 06, 2018

The MES Test Manager is the established tool for requirements-based testing of software models. The comprehensive documentation of a test and its results is essential in order to reliably assess the quality and completeness of the test, particularly with regard to safeguarding safety-relevant functions. Presenting a short introduction of the significant functions and new features that come with the current version of MTest, this webinar will also focus particularly on the comprehensive test catalog and test documentation.

The webinar will take place on two alternative dates in English:
